University of California, Irvine
High School Summer Institute in Law
Need-Based Scholarship Program

A limited number of students will be awarded complimentary enrollment in the 2017 High School Summer Institute in Law. Selection will be made by a Scholarship Committee based on the established evaluation criteria listed below.

Evaluation Criteria

Students must submit the attached Application Form and a personal statement expressing their need for complimentary enrollment.

Policies and Procedures

1. Students must write their own personal statement.

2. Students may submit documentation evidencing their need for complimentary enrollment. Documentation may include tax information or verification of qualifying for free lunch programs at their school.

3. Applications are due by 11:55 p.m. on June 9, 2017.

4. The three-person Scholarship Committee, which will be appointed by UCI School of Law, will review all applications received by the deadline.

5. The Scholarship Committee’s award determinations will be final.

6. The awardees selected to receive a complimentary enrollment will be notified by July 14, 2017.
